IDF: The IDF and ISA struck five terrorists in an operations room in Nur Shams

On Monday, in a joint IDF and ISA counterterrorism operation, the IAF struck and eliminated five terrorists operating within an operations room in the area of Nur Shams. The structure was used by the terrorists to conduct terrorist activity and harm IDF soldiers operating in the area.

Among the terrorists that were eliminated is Jibril Jasan Ismail Jibril, a terrorist involved in terror activity in the areas of Tulkarm and Qalqilya who was released as part of the agreement in November 2023.

Also eliminated were the terrorists Mohanad Qarawi and Muhammad Yussef, who were involved in terrorist activity in Nur Shams, and the terrorist Adnan Jaber, who was involved in terrorist activity and manufactured explosives intended to harm security forces.

Joint IDF, ISA and Israel Police announcement:

Israeli security forces began a counterterrorism operation in Jenin and Tulkarm, eliminating armed terrorists from the air and ground, dismantling explosives planted under the roads and confiscating large quantities of weapons

Overnight, the IDF, ISA, and Israel Border Police began a counterterrorism operation in Jenin and Tulkarm.

In the area of Jenin, three armed terrorists who posed a threat to the security forces were eliminated in an aerial strike by an aircraft.

Furthermore, in the areas of Jenin and Tulkarm, the forces eliminated two additional armed terrorists, apprehended wanted suspects, and located and confiscated weapons including M-16s, ammunition, and additional military equipment.

Additionally, the forces exposed and dismantled explosives that were planted under the roads in the area and were intended to be detonated in attacks against the security forces operating in the area.

Simultaneously, the security forces initiated an aerial counterterrorism operation in the area of Far'a, during which, an aircraft struck and eliminated four armed terrorists that posed a threat to the forces. The forces confiscated weapons and exposed and dismantled explosives that were planted under the roads in the area.

IDF: Destruction of an Attack Tunnel in the Area of the Central Gaza Corridor

In recent weeks, the 16th Brigade has been operating in the Central Gaza Strip Corridor under the command of the 252nd Division. So far, the troops eliminated dozens of terrorists and dismantled hundreds of terrorist infrastructure.

The Engineering Unit of the Southern Command, the Yahalom Unit, and the brigade's troops located, investigated and destroyed an attack tunnel approximately 3 kilometers long.

In the 2014 Operation "Protective Edge", part of the tunnel route was destroyed. Over the years, Hamas has attempted to restore and to make the tunnel route operational. The tunnel that was destroyed at this time did not cross the border.

IDF: Earlier today (Wednesday), based on IDF intelligence, the IAF struck and eliminated the terrorist Faris Qasim, a significant terrorist in the Islamic Jihad terrorist organization's Operations Division, in the area of the Syrian-Lebanese border.

Qasim was responsible for the development of the Islamic Jihad's operational plans in Syria and Lebanon. He had a central role in the recruitment of Palestinian terrorists into the Hezbollah terrorist organization responsible for carrying out terrorist attacks from Lebanon against the State of Israel.

In recent years, the Hezbollah terrorist organization, with Iranian direction and funding, has been systematically recruiting Palestinian operatives to advance and direct terrorist activity against the State of Israel from Lebanese territory.

Additional Islamic Jihad terrorists who were on their way from Syria to carry out terrorist activities for the Hezbollah terrorist organization in Lebanese territory were eliminated in the strike.

IDF: Sirens sounded in northern Israel.

IDF: The Chief of the General Staff to the Heads of Local Municipalities in the Jordan Valley: "We are here first and foremost to strengthen security"

Yesterday (Tuesday), the Chief of the General Staff, LTG Herzi Halevi, visited the Jordan Valley Brigade. The Chief of the General Staff toured with commanders the area where the terrorist that fired at the Beka'ot community was eliminated two weeks ago, and held a situational assessment with the commanders regarding the eastern border and security efforts in Samaria and the Jordan Valley.

Following this, discussions were held with the heads of the local municipalities and councils of Bik'at HaYarden, Emek HaYarden, Emek HaMaayanot, and Megilot.

From the remarks of the Chief of the General Staff, LTG Herzi Halevi: "The IDF is operating on seven fronts with very different characteristics. We are here first and foremost to strengthen security, and then also the sense of security. There is great importance in the rapid response teams. We are working to reinforce them and investing a lot in this effort. We will be here with as many forces and resources as possible to build better security infrastructure that will provide better protection for the communities. This will also happen thanks to the partnership between us and you."

Joint IDF, ISA, and Israel Police announcement:

The IDF and ISA rescued a fallen soldier who was abducted on October 7th and held hostage in the Gaza Strip

In a joint IDF and ISA operation overnight (Wednesday), a fallen IDF soldier who was abducted on October 7th and held hostage in the Gaza Strip was rescued and returned to the State of Israel.

The soldier fell during the October 7th Massacre and he was taken hostage in the Gaza Strip. His family has been notified. At the request of his family, his name will not be published. We send our deepest condolences to the family and will continue to accompany them.

The operation was led by the 162nd Division with the participation of IDF and ISA special forces, and troops of the Nahal Brigade and the 401st Brigade. The intelligence effort was conducted by the IDF Hostage and Missing Persons Unit together with the ISA and the Unit of International Crime Investigations of the Lahav 433 of the Israel Police.

The effort took place over several months and consisted of intelligence gathering, and analysis that worked to generate a single assessment.

Alongside the operational effort, the IDF Manpower Directorate's Hostage and Missing Persons Center, which is responsible for accompanying the families of the hostages, operated to identify the hostage and inform the family.

The IDF and ISA are operating using all means to bring home all the hostages as quickly as possible.
